

Please leave the NJ Do Not Call Protection as it is. It has been wonderful over the last year and a half not to receive any unwanted calls from telemarketers. If I have done business with someone within the last 18 months and they want to get in contact with me, then they may do so via the U.S. mail service.